Anyone can see the world.

YOU'RE GOING TO EXPERIENCE IT.

As you can see, your EF tour includes visits to the places you've learned about in school. That's a given. But it's so much more than that. Immersing yourself in new cultures—surrounded by the people, the language, the food, the way of life—creates inspirational moments that can't be listed in an itinerary. They can only be experienced.

And the experience begins long before you get your passport stamped and meet your Tour Director in your arrival city. It begins the moment you decide to go. Whether it's connecting with other travelers on Facebook, Twitter or Instagram, or delving deeper into your destinations with our online learning platform, weShare, the excitement will hit you long before you pack your suitcase.

When your group arrives abroad, everything is taken care of so you can relax and enjoy the experience. Your full-time Tour Director is with your group around the clock, handling local transportation, hotels and meals while also providing their own insight into the local history and culture. Expert local guides will lead your group on sightseeing tours, providing detailed views of history, art, architecture or anything you may have a question about.

When your journey is over and you're unpacking your suitcase at home, you'll realize the benefits of your life-changing experience do not end. They have just begun.

@EFtours I attribute my college semester abroad to the love for travel I discovered on an EF Tour in high school #traveltuesday

What you'll experience on your tour

Day 1: Fly overnight to Ireland

Day 2: Dublin

- Meet your Tour Director at the airport in Dublin, Ireland's capital city scenically situated between Dun Laoghaire (pronounced "dun leery") and Howth Head's rocky peaks. Literary history greets you at every turn, from Trinity College, where playwright Samuel Beckett and satirist Jonathan Swift studied, to the Long Room of the Old Library, where you'll see the Book of Kells. Irish monks created this calligraphic manuscript over 1,000 years ago. Admire St. Patrick's Cathedral, whose presence honors the patron saint of Ireland, and when you ride through Dublin's elegant Georgian squares, be sure to ask your guide about the colorful doors.
- Take a walking tour of Dublin

Day 3: Dublin

- Take an expertly guided tour of Dublin: Georgian squares; O'Connell Street; St. Stephen's Green
- See the Book of Kells at Trinity College
- Visit St. Patrick's Cathedral

Day 4: Dublin | Belfast

- Travel to Belfast, a city in transition, and learn how it's redefining itself after famously undergoing a period of religious strife in the 1970s and 1980s. Yet, testaments to the city's past still exist: Along Catholic Falls Road and Protestant Shankill Road, witness giant political murals that help tell the history of Northern Ireland. In the Old Town you'll see Victorian architectural gems such as the City Hall and the Albert Memorial Clock, Belfast's very own leaning tower. You'll also pass the shipbuilding docks where the legendary steamship Titanic was constructed.
- Take an expertly guided tour of Belfast: Lower Falls; Shankill Road; Murals
- Visit Titanic Belfast

Day 5: Belfast | Edinburgh

- Travel by ferry to Stanraer
- Travel to Alloway
- Visit Robert Burns Birthplace Museum
- Continue on to Edinburgh, where Edinburgh Castle is the enduring symbol of Scotland's capital and site of many of the nation's storied events. Ownership of the fortress, perched atop an extinct volcano, changed hands many times over the centuries, from Scottish to English and back again. Mary, Queen of Scots, gave birth here to James VI of Scotland, who would later rule England as James I. In addition to the castle, you'll see the homes of Alexander Graham Bell and Robert Louis Stevenson. For a sense of what it was like to live in Edinburgh in centuries past, stroll down the Royal Mile through the Old Town, a romantic jumble of medieval buildings.

Day 6: Edinburgh

- Take an expertly guided tour of Edinburgh
- Visit Edinburgh Castle
- Take a walking tour of Edinburgh

Day 7: Edinburgh

- Take an excursion to Stirling and the Trossachs: William Wallace Monument; Sheep-dog demonstration (April-September); Loch Katrine

Scotland was by far the best part of the tour, filled with haggis, kilts, highland cows and castles. In the three days we spent in Edinburgh, we got the chance to visit the breathtaking Edinburgh Castle and Palace of Holyrood House as well as take part in a traditional Scottish dinner where we learned popular line dances and songs, and got to sample Scottish foods like haggis, neeps, and tatties.
